Image: Corbis/VCG / Corbis / Getty Images Grunge music is not limited to wearing flakes and being depressed. The first grunge sounds came out of Seattle in the mid-1980s, but gained popularity in the early and mid-1990s. This subgenre of rock music was a feeling. Bands such as Nirvana, Pearl Jam, Soundgarden and Stone Temple Pilots have crossed and showed the world that there was a type of rock music that was not necessarily metal and not necessarily psychedelic. This alternative sound sound resonates with the outcasts of the 1990s, and changed the way we saw the music. Rock was no longer a fusion of country, blues and electronics. It became a pure sound that was not always perfect but always made a difference. The texts of these new sounds attacked society more than they addressed to the government, as they had had the music of the previous decades. It was about looking at yourself and understanding who you were. He attacked self-understanding, bullying and inequality. Without a doubt, grunge changed the sound of music for an entire generation, and for a good reason. The music was pure, the voices were passionate and the texts were poetry. It was so popular that the genre lasted more than a decade with fans spanning the world. If you think you're a fan of band grunge, try to identify these songs grunge from the lyrics we give you.
